

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THOMAS LINCOLN, "Cooper."

1. THOMAS, the "cooper," and also known as "maltster," came from the west of England, says tradition, and settled in our Hing. ab. 1635-6. His name, however, does not appear upon our records until 1636, when there was "granted unto Thomas Lincoln, cooper, five acres of land at the west end of the town for a house-lot, butting on the town street eastward, and upon the common westward, and with the land of Francis Smith northward, and with the land of Thomas Nichols southward." This lot he aft. sold or exchanged for one on North, near Beal St., which was his homestead. He also had a small triangular lot of land granted him subsequent to the first distribution of lots in 1635, at what is now the corner of North and Lincoln Sts. This (the triangular lot) he aft. gave with malt-house, etc., to his youngest son, Benjamin. His w., whom he m. in Eng. ab. 1630, was Anis, or Avith Lane, a dau. of William Lane. She d. in Hing. At the time the present meeting-house of the First Parish was erected (1680-81), Thomas Lincoln, cooper, was one of the five elderly gentlemen to whom was assigned a sitting "in the seate under y^e pulpit;" while for Mrs. Lincoln a place was allotted "in the second seate next y^e pew." THOMAS LINCOLN, "Husbandman"

1. THOMAS, styled "the husbandman," and bro. of Stephen Lincoln, came from Wymondham in the County of Norfolk, Eng., and settled in our Hing. in the autumn of 1638. His name frequently occurs upon the early rec's of the town, and in every instance he is distinguished from the other Thomases by his occupation. His conveyances and titles to property acquired either by grant or purchase, also afford evidence of his vocation in life. None of his descendants bearing surname in the male line reside in Hing. at the present time. There are, however, quite numerous throughout New England, and not difficult to connect with those who removed into Worcester County, to the State of Maine. His w. was Margaret, dau. of Richard Lane. THOMAS LINCOLN, "Weaver."

1. THOMAS, styled the "weaver," was a bro. of Daniel Lincoln the "husbandman," who d. here unm., 5 Apr. 1644; and also of Samuel Lincoln, Sr., who was a younger bro. Thomas the "weaver" came to New Eng. in 1633 with his cousin Nicholas Jacob, and resided for ab. two yrs. at Watertown and Charlestown. He had a grant of land in Hing. at Weary-all (Otis) Hill in 1635; and July 3, 1636, a house-lot of five acres on the south side of Town (South) St. He was twice m.; but I have not ascertained the surname of either of his wives. The chris. name of his first w. was Susanna. She d. March, 1641. The chris. name of his sec. w. was Mary. She survived him, and d. in Hing. 21 Dec. 1683, being then, as the record says, "an aged woman." He d. in Hing. 2 Sept. 1675, leaving no ch. His will, which is without date, was witnessed by Edmund Pitts and Josiah Loring. It was presented at Boston, 26 Oct. 1675. In that instrument he bequeaths "all my moveables, and land, orchards, gardens, and meadows to Mary Lincoln my beloved wife. After her decease, Daniel Lincoln, my nephew, and son of my brother Samuel, shall have the house-lot I now dwell upon which was given me by the town of Hingham; also, one half of my salt-meadow at Abraham's well, and one half of my planting lot at Weary-all Hill. To Samuel Lincoln, my nephew, the eldest son of my brother Samuel, the house-lot I formerly purchased of Jarvis Gould, deceased. Also to brother Samuel a specified sum; and to my other nephews and nieces who are the children of my brother Samuel, viz.: Mary Lincoln, Mordecai Lincoln, Thomas Lincoln, Martha Lincoln, and Sarah Lincoln," sums varying from £5 to £12, each. As no mention is made of Samuel's youngest dau. Rebecca, it is more than prob. that the will was made before her birth.

MARSH.

1. GEORGE, prob. from old Hingham or some of the adjoining parishes in Norfolk County, Eng., came to New Eng., and settled in our Hing. with Rev. Peter Hobart and his company, 1635. On the 18th of Sept. of that year he drew a house-lot on Town (North) St., which was bounded and described in the town's first book of grants as foll.: "Given unto George Marsh for a house-lot, five acres of land bounded by Richard Osborn, eastward; with the highway leading to Squirrel Hill, westward; with the Town Street, southward," etc. But little is known concerning his active life or family history. Tradition, however, says that he was descended from the Marshes in Eng., who trace back their ancestry more than two hundred years before America was first settled; and that before they came into Eng. the surname was spelled "Marisco." The chris. name of his w. was Elizabeth. She survived him, and m. secondly, Nov. 1648, Richard Bowen. George was made "freeman" 3 March, 1636, and was one of the selectmen, 1645. He d. 2 July, 1647. MASON.

CAPT. JOHN, who finished up the Pequod War in 1637, being then in chief command, aftr. major-general, etc., was prob. a resident of Hing. for awhile subsequent to that eventful period of our early New Eng. history. Several yrs. later he resided at Windsor, at Saybrook, and lastly, at Norwich, where he d. 30 Jan. 1671-72, æt. 72 yrs. Whether he was twice m. or not is uncertain; but his m'ge to — Peck (prob. dau. of Robert Peck of Hing.) is recorded in Hobart's Journal, under date of July, 1639. In Suffolk Deeds, vol. i. p. 82, is the foll.: "Capt^a John Mason of Windsor granted vnto Thomas Thaxter of Hingham his house & land in Hingham wth formerly was M^r Robert Pecks wth all the priviledges thereto belonging & this was by an absolute deed of sale dated 5 (5) 1647, and acknowledged 6 (6) 1647 before M^r Endecot." As it is a matter of record that Robert Peck, the minister and teacher, came to Hing. in 1638 with his w. and two ch., and returned to Eng. in 1641 with his w. and one child, i. e., his s. Joseph, it seems to be almost conclusive that the child left here was the w. of Capt. Mason; and this belief is strengthened by the foregoing conveyance. The

1. ROBERT, from Hing., Norfolk Co., Eng., and s. of Robert of Beccles, County of Suffolk, Eng., was granted seven acres of land in our Hing. 1638, on Bachelor (Main) St., in the vicinity of the present meeting-house of the First Parish, and the same year was ordained in Nov. teacher of the church. The foll. extracts furnish reliable information relating to him and his fam. :—

"Robert Peck, Hingham, probably brother of Joseph, was bred at Magdalen College, Cambridge; was minister over 30 years at Hingham, County of Norfolk. . . . He came with wife and 2 children and 2 servants in the [ship] 'Diligent,' 1638, and on the 28th of November of that year was ordained [teacher]; freeman 13 March following; but embarked 27 October, 1641, with wife and son Joseph for home, and went back to his old parsonage; there died 1656." (Savage's Gen. Dic.) From a brief sketch of Old Hing. by Walter Rye, editor of the Norfolk Co., Eng., "Antiquarian Miscellany," I take the foll. : "Another native was the Rev. Robert Peck, a great schismatic, who being prosecuted for various illegal alterations he had made in the church fled to America. . . . He returned to England when his party got into power." Mather wrote : "Mr. Peck, at the solicitation of his friends in England, returned to them in 1641, and there remained a minister of the gospel." (See also conveyance in sketch of Capt. John Mason, p. 65.)

SMITH (SMYTH).

RALPH, according to the record of Daniel Cushing, Esqr., "came from Old Hingham, 1633, and lived in this town." Mr. Cushing placed against the name the figure 1, which I presume was to signify, as it did in other instances, that Ralph came alone. And as there was but one other Ralph Smith here in the next few years, it seems more than prob. that the Ralph of 1633 was the one whose death is recorded by Rev. Peter Hobart of Hing. as foll.: "1640. Feb. 15. Ralph Smith buried." That the four foll. were related to each other scarcely admits of doubt; but whether as brothers or cousins does not appear, either upon our local rec's, or in the conveyances of Suffolk Deeds, and I give them in the order in which the names first occur in Hing.

FRANCIS had a grant of land here, Sept. 18, 1635, containing five acres, which was located at the west part of the town (West St.); also three acres on the south side of Weary-all (Otis) Hill. Freeman 1637. He removed with his family soon after to Taunton, Mass.

He had one child, bt. in Hing., viz., —

- i. SAMUEL, Oct. 1639.

RALPH appears in Hing. 1637, when he drew a house-lot on Bachelor (Main) St. at or near "Pear Tree Hill." He continued to reside here until 1653, when he removed to Eastham, Mass. It is said that he was twice m., the first w. being the mother of his ch. Oct. 27, 1685, adm. was granted to Grace Smith, the relict of Ralph Smith, and Samuel Smith, son to the said Ralph Smith, all of the town of Eastham, in the Colony of New Plymouth, in New England, deceased, etc. (Ply. Col. Rec's.)

Was one of the first two deacons of the church here. Representative 1641, etc. He removed with his fam. ab. 1643 to Rehoboth, where he d. 1649. In his will, dated 3 Nov. 1647, names

bro. Thomas Cooper, sons Henry and Daniel, and dau. Judith. Witnesses, Stephen Paine, Thomas Cooper, Joseph Peck. The will of Judith, his wid., was proved 24 Oct. 1650.

Lieutenant 1661; was in active service during King Philip's War, and had command of a fort; was elected "captain of our foote company of Souldjers," March, 1683; selectman in 1663, 1665, 1670, 1674, 1675, 1682, and 1683; representative in 1683, 1684, 1685, and 1686; an Assistant in 1686, and continuing to serve until the new charter. In 1713 he conveyed to Thomas Jones a piece of saltmarsh lying near Cooper's Island, which had formerly belonged to his grandfather, Ralph Woodward. John was then of Hing., and by occupation "cooper."

TOWER.

1. JOHN, s. of Robert and Dorothy (Damon) Tower, and bt. in Hing., Eng., May 17, 1609, became a resident of our Hing, 1637. He was made freeman 13 March, 1638-39. In his deposition concerning the highway near the residences of John Foulsham and Matthew Hawke, 9 Jan. 1676-77, and recorded in the selectmen's first book of rec's, his age is given at "about 69 years." The year of his birth, therefore, was not far from 1608, which coincides very nearly with the date of his baptism. Upon his arrival in Hing. he had a grant of three acres of land for a house-lot on Bachelor (Main) St., nearly opp. what is now Water St. He also had other lands granted to him at subsequent dates. In 1654, his name appears among others from Hing. upon the rec's of Lancaster, Mass. It is doubtful, however, whether he ever resided there. His home place, which has been held in the family name through successive generations, and is still recognized as "the old Tower estate," was on Main St., next south of the garrison house, near Tower's Bridge, So. Hing. Sept. 6, 1657, he purchased of William Cockraine, Jr., Att'y, land at Great Lots; also at Cooper's Island, in the sec. pre. Apr. 18, 1661, he bought of Edward Wilder, "planter," dw.-house, orchard, etc., with five acres of land which was given by the town of Hing. to Martha Wilder, the mother of Edward; also a lot of three acres, and another lot of four acres which the said Edward had previously purchased of Samuel Ward. Also three acres of salt-marsh lying in the Conahasset marshes, next adjoining Henry Chamberlin's. Deed recorded 13 May, 1673. In 1645 he was one of the seven men "chosen out of the body of the town, as well non-freeman as freeman," to order the prudential affairs of the town. "Farmer;" or, as he is called in conveyances "planter." Fence-viewer 1669, etc. He m. Feb. 13, 1638-39, Margaret, dau. of Richard Ibrook. She d. 15 May, 1700. He d. 13 Feb. 1701-2, æt. 93 yrs.

WALTON.

WILLIAM, had a grant of land in Hing. at the first distribution of lots, Sept. 18, 1635. In our early history, the est's on Main, between High and Friend Sts., belonged to Samuel Ward, and were sold by him to Jabez Wilder. He also owned other lots of land, and the street leading from High to Cushing St. undoubtedly took its name from the fact that sev. generations of his descendants lived in this neighborhood. His

NOAH (II. p. 338: 10, xiii.), the youngest s. of David, and gr.-s. of Rev. Peter Hobart, the first minister of Hing., appears to have been m. to his sec. w. under somewhat romantic circumstances. Concerning this alliance with Priscilla Thomas, John L. Watson of Orange, N. J., contributed to the "New England Historical and Genealogical Register" (Vol. XXVII, No. 1), from records left by his brother Benjamin M. Watson, deceased, which had been received from his aunt, Mrs. Priscilla (Watson) Cotton of Ply., the following:—

CHAP. 1.

NOAH HOBART, y^e last husband of my Great Grand Mother, Priscilla Hobart, was a school teacher in Duxbury, Mass^{ts}, having graduated at Harvard College in 1724, and become acquainted with Priscilla Thomas, a very interesting young girl, daughter of Caleb Thomas, a respectable citizen of that town. Their acquaintance ripened into an engagement, & mutual promises of marriage, whenever his circumstances w^d permit him to discharge y^e debts he had contracted for his education. While this understanding subsisted between them, & they were enjoying y^e happy relation of affianced lovers, & calmly waiting for such improvement in their affairs as w^d justify their marriage, John Watson Esq^r, of Plymouth, my Great Grand Father, being a Widower, having seen Priscilla, was much pleas'd with her, although y^e serious difference of nearly thirty years existed in their ages, he being about 50, & she 22 years old. Being, however, thus charm'd with Priscilla, he proceeded to Duxbury & call'd on her parents, & made known to them his views & wishes in relation to Priscilla, & requested their consent to visit their daughter, with y^e object of offering himself to her in marriage. They inform'd M^r Watson that Priscilla was engaged to Mr. Hobart, but they w^d call her & let her speak for herself, they seeming pleas'd with y^e offer, as M^r Watson's circumstances were known to be very eligible.

CHAP. 2.

Priscilla was call'd, & appear'd gratified with an offer from so rich a suitor, & observed that she w^d see Noah, & talk with him about it. She convers'd with Noah, and he thought that, upon y^e whole, it was not advisable for her to lose so good an opportunity; & as he was still so much in debt for his education, that it was quite uncertain when he w^d be able to relieve himself from his embarrassments, & be in a condition to marry her. She then concluded to accept M^r Watson's offer; and in a few weeks he married her, & carried her to his home in Plymouth. In due time she bore him two sons, y^e eldest, my great uncle William Watson; & y^e youngest my grandfather Elkanah Watson; & soon after, in Sept^r 1731, her husband died of a fever, and left his wife a handsome young widow, of about 25 years of age.

CHAP. 3.

About y^e same time that M^r Watson's death occur'd, the wife of Thomas Lothrop Esq^r, one of their neighbours, died, leaving a young infant, w^h was frequently sent to M^r's Watson to be nursed, she having also a nursing infant. In y^e meantime, Noah Hobart, probably not having yet paid his college debts, did not now manifest any particular sentiments, or intentions in relation to her, perhaps also being influenced by y^e contrast in their condition, she being left a rich widow.

The intercourse created between M^r Lothrop () & M^r's Watson by their mutual interest in his nursing infant, brought about a reciprocal interest in each other, & in due time he offer'd, & was accepted by her as her second husband. She lived with him happily for some years, & bore him three children, () two sons & a daughter; viz. D^r Nathaniel Lothrop & Isaac Lothrop Esq^r, of Plymouth, and Priscilla, married to Gershom Burr Esq^r, of Connecticut; when M^r Lothrop died, & Priscilla became a widow for y^e second time.
